

4/28/73

Dear Mr. Fraser,

Thanks for your letter of the 25th.

Thanks also for the schedule. I probably won't use it. The friend with whom I will be staying wants to drive me there. He says it is not a long trip. However, it is good to have.

I expect to leave for New York City the morning of the 6th and will be looking for a lawyer before I go to Madison and afterward if I don't find one Monday morning.

If this friend drives me there I probably will be better off returning that night with him. But thanks for the offer of accommodations.

However, I think it would be a good idea if we get together for dinner and talk things over.

My friend has told me he knows where Madison is. Because the probability is I will not be asking you to pick me up at the station, would you please let me know your phone or, if at that time you will be home, where your ^{home} ~~office~~ is so we can find you?

Please do not put yourself to the trouble of making elaborate plans for dinner. We live and I am used to a simple life. At the same time, if there are those you would like to join us, please feel free to make whatever arrangements you would like.

I have put 8mm copies of the Zapruder and Nix movies where I'll not forget them and a few 35mm Zapruder slides, should you want to see them. You should know that the picture of the President's head exploding is hard for most people to take.

Ian switched jobs yesterday. I last spoke to him Thursday. He and Cris should be up soon. I'll deliver your message.

Best regards,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you for your letter and enclosures, and most of all your interest in coming to speak to our students. Y

TIME	8 P. M.
DATE	May 7
PLACE	Student Center
HONORARIUM	$200.00

We have been giving publicity to the local student and community papers. I am looking forward to your coming and I think it might be a good idea to bring the Zapruder film and perhaps we can arrange for a showing to a half dozen people afterwards.

The easiest way to get here from Washington is to take the Metroliner to Newark and from Newark take a cab to the Erie-Lackawanna RR Station to catch a west-bound train to Madison. I am enclosing a schedule, which may help you.

Now, if you would like to come early, I would be happy to take you to dinner and we could visit before, in which case I would encourage you to come to Convent Station, one stop past Madison, and be on the train that gets you into Convent Station around 5 P.M. If we go right to dinner we will avoid the crowd and have a more relaxing time of it. Let me know whether or not you plan to stay over in Madison that evening.

With my very best regards.

Sincerely,

James H. Fraser
