

Dear Jim,

Info for Hensel for Hurok

9/25/75

You realize that when Whitewash was the first and only book and then was the first "underground" book, I had no lecture bureau. When Dick Gregory arranged for his to book me, Lane claimed an exclusive contract and I had none then. So I have no central set of records to consult from which I can prepare a list of the places I've spoken. The result is that my appearances were spasmodic, when I was asked only. The fact is it then was not easy for colleges to find me.

What I'll do is make two lists, the second of radio/TV live appearances, in the event the number of cities is of interest to them. If you think not leave it out. I'll come to them as I try to recall.

I'll also omit civic groups. I've addressed most of them, even the Junior Chamber of Commerce, over the years.

What is surprising and may or may not interest Hurok is that unlike the commercializers with one conspicuous exception, my best audiences have been at conservative institutions. I'll mark those I consider best with an * in the event it does interest. Where there is anything special I'll indicate it.

There are probably more. There are countless religious and community groups. I've cut down on the electronic appearances because they'd be without end. These are repeated and live, limited to the larger cities of syndicated shows originating there.

Then there were debates. With three Warren staffers I can recall, Liebeler, Willins and Belin. With one of Ray's prosecutors, Judge Dwyer. With other authors, like Frank and Hulse and Elmer Gertz. There have been special educational things, like the East Coast Conference on American Civilization and seminars for collegial faculty people only. There was that special relationship with Senator Russell. If I tried to include all the broadcasts it would run into hundreds. Oh yes, I was the main speaker at the Ohio Associated Press editors convention in 1967, first time anybody of under sub-cabinet rank. The State Attorney General was subordinate on the program to me. I've left out high schools, perhaps 10% mostly as unpaid favors. And after-dinner speaking, probably two dozen. I'm not sure I know what else Hensel wants but if you think, please ask. And if you want us to type this over neatly, please tell us how. I don't even know Hensel's first name, so I can't address him.
