Dear Mr. Weisberg,

The publicity on your appearance at the South Shore Forum will be going out in a day or two. We're expecting a good crowd - and a literate one.

The best way to get here is via the Jersey Turnpike into Staten Island (bypassing Manhattan) across the Verrazano bridge into the Brooklyn Belt or Shore Parkway and then directly on to Long Island. Travelling time from the bridge is just about an hour. I'll send out more precise directions in a week or ten days.

Will we have the pleasure of your company for dinner on the 19th
and will Mrs. Weisberg accompany you?

We look forward to seeing and hearing you with eagerness and anticipation.

Sincerely,
Ralph Post

Dear Dr. Post:

My husband has just returned from New Orleans to face a deluge of mail, telephone calls, and his normal work. So I am taking the liberty of replying to your letter.

I don't know yet how he will be traveling to New York. The one thing I can be certain of is that he will not be driving because he is not in condition to undertake a drive of that length. He does not know where he will be staying yet, either. This he will have to advise you of when he has made arrangements.

If his travel arrangements make it at all possible, he will be very happy to have dinner with you and your family on the 19th. That he will have to confirm later, too. As for me, I won't accompany him because he has already told me that he will have so many things to do while he is in New York that he'll be working under pressure. I have enough pressure here at home. I do appreciate your invitation and under more relaxed circumstances would be happy to accept.

And pressure or not, my husband will enjoy being with you and addressing your Forum. It is meat and drink to him, particularly if his audience is an aware and questioning one.

Sincerely,

Lillian Weisberg
