Dear Dr. Post:

The months do go by.

It looks as though I will be able to do it. But my work-load has increased, not decreased. I expect to finish the rough draft of a third book this week and two more, both begun, by the end of May or early June. I will also have to go to New Orleans but I think I can be back by then.

Thanks for reminding me.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

The months glide by
and the time approaches for your appearance before the South Shore Forum.

We would be very pleased if you <sup>could</sup> come for dinner at our house before the meeting and bring your wife. Last month we entertained Mr. and Mrs.
William Kunkler and it was very pleasant.

The date is Friday May 19th
Sincerely,
Ralph Post
