

Friday morning

Hi

Spoke to Mr. Conrad Coley, program chairman of Beech-El Suburban, last night. He is not the man who wrote the letter to Harold, but he will relay the message to the proper person who was in charge of arranging that particular program. He was quite enthusiastic, having heard the program the previous night. He had heard Harold each time he was on WCAU. He is a regular listener to Jack McKenney. I told him you or Harold would be in write to him as soon as you were able (as per request by Harold). He assumed that since Harold will be traveling during the next few weeks, he will be unavailable for January & he will be telling the person who wrote to Harold to arrange something else for their January meeting. However, apparently they would still like to know about February.

If Harold is still home, he may be interested in knowing that Nathan told me he apologized to Jerry for having refused her gift the previous night. He received her gift ~~then~~ a real good model of a 1978 Mercedes with delight and his face hardly fell when he received a flannel shirt from us. He even thanked us for it. He wanted to wear it this morning and was very happy to see that the flannel (color) was used that it came be worn with all his school pants. He plans to go shopping tomorrow for the girls' gifts.

Things are much the same for us. I must set

Dear Dr. Babins:

My delay in answering your letter of November 28 is because I have been away and am immediately leaving again. I regret I cannot now with certainty make a commitment for January.

This is not to stall you. I am at the moment very busy, far past exhaustion, and have an unusually taxing two weeks ahead of me. Also, I have committed myself to tell the story of WHITEWASH in 200 radio programs that I may have to tape beginning in January.

Directly or indirectly, as soon as I know what my situation is and will be, I can let you know.

I was in Broomall for almost four hours Thursday morning after my appearance on the Jack McKinney show but had to leave too early to phone you. Perhaps by now my sister or brother-in-law have has gotten this message to you.

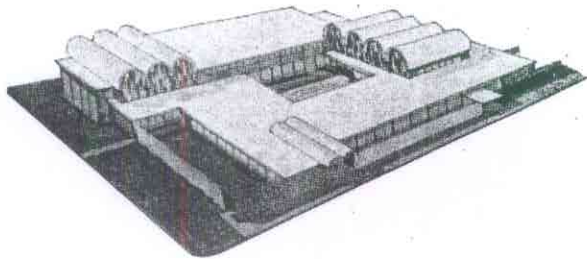

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
