

2/3/67

Dear Mr. Lawson,

My travel arrangement are now made. I'll be on Northeast Airlines. leaving Boston 9:30 a.m., arriving 10:38. The next morning I'm supposed to be booked on Mohawk, the New York flight leaveing 7:20.

If they are possible, there are two favors I would like to ask. First, I will be tired. This added to my bad back makes me prefer to speak while sitting. If you prefer otherwise, I can stand. Second, I do not think you should spent the money on a hotel. Staying with Henry or in your frat house will be a pleasure. But I hope there is someone who can rouse me the next morning if I do not unassistedly. I do want to catch that first morning plane back.

This will be particularly true if we do talk until the wee small hours, which is more than agreeable. I pick up after a few hours in bed.

Please feel free to allocate my time in any way you'd like. Those things you mentioned sound interesting.

I'm looking forward to being with you.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
