

10/18/70 - a little before 1:40 p.m. The same man who made the previous harassing calls said "This Howard!" when I answered the phone when I said go, recognizing my his voice, he gave only three dirty, though "ha's" & hung up. It was with a deliberate short pause but well then,
"Ha. Ha. Ha." That was all.

Howard & L'il were here. We were having lunch. As soon as we ate, L'il laid down, we left, without saying anything.

This & the other calls were so brief it is as though the man making them knew there was not enough time to see, i.e., to know what the problems of tracing.
