Dear Mrs ROGERS,

It was indeed a pleasure to administer the oath of enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps to your son. I heartily congratulate you on the choice he has made in joining us, and feel sure that he will be a credit to the Marine Corps. I am confident that he will serve his country faithfully and courageously.

The first days of "Boot Camp" are known as "forming days" or screening days. Your son will probably be in a state of confusion but his Drill Instructor, called "DI", will soon change all of this into a well-ordered schedule.

The first week of training will consist of a visit to the barber for a "boot" haircut, drawing his clothing and Post Exchange supplies. He will also have the opportunity to meet his Chaplain.

Since your son will be very busy, he may not write to you frequently. However, I know he will appreciate all the letters he receives from you. Until he sends you his complete address you may us:

Pvt Roscoe A. WHITE 1666106 USMCR
Marine Corps Recruit Depot
San Diego, California

I am enclosing a windshield sticker which I hope you will use to let others know your son is a member of the finest military organization in the world, The United States Marine Corps.

If at any time, you desire information regarding you son, or the Marine Corps, please feel free to contact me or the Recruiting Office nearest you.

Sincerely,

R. K. Jones
