1898 - Our Seventy-Ninth Year - 1976

Dear Friend:

It is my pleasure to inform you that you are being considered for inclusion in the Sixteenth Edition of WHO'S WHO IN THE EAST.

I have enclosed a copy of our biographical data form. Would you be kind enough to fill out and sign this form and return it to us at your earliest convenience, so that our editors may have your data in time to evaluate it for the new edition?

We are frequently asked, "How do people get into any Who's Who volume?" Selection is based on the fundamental principle of reference value. Although the public may regard selection for inclusion as a kind of recognition of your accomplishments -- and quite justifiably so -- it is not our purpose to confer such distinction. WHO'S WHO IN THE EAST is a reference work, not a social register.

Published biennially since 1948 by Marquis Who's Who, Inc., America's leading biographical archivists, WHO'S WHO IN THE EAST is intended to serve the needs of the nation's public, institutional, and private reference libraries. There are few such libraries that do not keep the current edition in their reference collection.

The biographical data you supply will be examined by our unbiased staff of editors who will evaluate your qualifications for inclusion in WHO'S WHO IN THE EAST. If selection for inclusion appears warranted, we will prepare your biography in Who's Who format, and a prepublication proof will be sent to you for checking to ensure that it is accurate and up-to-date.

Of course, selection for inclusion carries with it no cost or obligation. Listings in WHO'S WHO IN THE EAST are not for sale. On behalf of the editors, may I congratulate you on the accomplishments that have led them to consider your name for inclusion in WHO'S WHO IN THE EAST. May we look forward to receiving your completed biographical data form.

Sincerely,

Paul Rohe
Editorial Director

P.S. In the course of their biographical research, our editors make use of many sources, and your name may be in more than one of them. If you have already supplied data for WHO'S WHO IN THE EAST, please advise us so that we may spare you duplicate mailings.
