Dear Mrs. Warner,

Thanks for your wire.

I'm hopeful of being in New York in the near future and will then phone you.

For the immediate, aside from the obligations of a publisher, I'm rushing through with WHITEWASH III for whose introduction on coast-to-coast TV I arranged while on my just-ended trip. I hope to have that completed and out by the end of February. The second book has sold about 3,500 copies in three weeks!

Meanwhile, this entire subject will soon become one of even greater public concern with what is publicly known that is about to be printed and what is being kept under wraps. Also, the Manchester book may be its own kind of national scandal, aside from the jet-set thinking that is now in the papers.

Should a really worthwhile opportunity present itself, I can always find time.

There will soon be another TV special. It was scheduled for taping the sixth but my opposition did not show up. I understand something else is being worked out.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
