

CHARLES C THOMAS • PUBLISHER

SUBSTANTIVE CRIMINAL LAW by M. Cherif Bassiouni, De Paul Univ., Chicago. The first section of this text covers general theories of criminal law and criminal responsibility. Included are the sources and limits of criminal law, its purposes and methods, models of responsibility, and the constitutive elements of a crime. Substantive crimes per se are explored in depth in the second section which includes inchoate crimes, crimes against the person, crimes against property and economic interests, offenses against public morality, and crimes against society. Lastly, the text offers an examination of all theories of defense. '78, 676 pp. (6 3/4 x 9 3/4), 1 table, $24.50

MEDICOLEGAL INVESTIGATION OF THE PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY MURDER by Charles G. Wilber, Colorado State Univ., Fort Collins. After a careful examination of the medicolegal data, the author arrives at the inevitable conclusion that more than one person fired at and hit President Kennedy in the head. The events of the murder, medical treatment of victims, the controversial autopsy on the remains, the Warren Commission and its conclusions, the rifle and cartridges, the nonfatal wounds, and the head wound are all considered. '78, 336 pp., 9 il., 2 tables, $14.50

MUNICIPAL PUBLIC SAFETY: A Guide for the Implementation of Consolidated Police-Fire Services by Esai Berenbaum, Dept. of Public Safety, Durham, North Carolina. The complete range of procedures and plans necessary for the successful consolidation of police and fire services is contained in this volume. The text covers where and why this type of program is appropriate, how to plan and select a program, and what type of recruiting, training, and operational techniques are most effective. '77, 104 pp., 7 il. (4 in color), $10.75

A LEGAL OVERVIEW OF THE NEW STUDENT: As Educational Consumer, Citizen, and Bargainer edited by Robert A. Laudicina and Joseph L. Tramutola, Jr., both of Fairleigh Dickinson Univ., Madison, New Jersey. (19 Contributors) This book examines contemporary student-institutional relationships and recommends a viable legal framework to encourage commitment and reciprocity among all campus citizens. Chapters discuss legal issues concerning admissions, financial aid, records, student service contracts, students in the classroom, and student organizations. '76, 316 pp., 1 il., 1 table, $17.50

Prepaid orders sent postpaid, on approval

301-327 EAST LAWRENCE
SPRINGFIELD • ILLINOIS • 62717

Circle 108 on Reader Service Card

I've ordered a copy -

10/78