Big Fiddle! 3/16/98

Dear Hal, CW 3/24/98

Came across a great quotation from the French past, Amalie Chemin, who went to the guillotine.
He made reference to "Crimes so great that they make the laws themselves tremble."
Those are the state crimes you have investigated.

The "spookiest" element was the two years of almost total media silence. The New Republic had an article by Jack Minis and The Nation one which it took off on as it did on Fred Cook. Lane and The National Guardian ---.

I think I told you I got interested when Louis Casper told my Mom "Tommy the Cook" told Matt "No way would it all!" Years later I learned Matt as U.S. Attorney put Rosselli in jail!

I asked Matt, my Dad's best friend, about his opinion and he was not sure which was not like Matt. Later I also learned he was one of the three lawyers who unmasked the CIA.

I got Bushby's book in Canada!

I kept thinking where is The Media! Two years of silence. That is spooky.

"Certainly the rejection of
"Whitewash" was not for Commercial reasons.

Why would Clinton's enemies like Ron Brown? He was under investigation and was more valuable to them alive than dead. Gregory is a New Guy but for out.
The Brinkley Journal in The New Yorker is not out fair.

L.B.N.'s Detail in The Castro Notalation they insured a cover-up. He told Howard K. Smith, Kennedy was trying to get to Castro. But Castro got to Kennedy first. "RE: Castro Casebook. Clinton's comment to Wall Hubble is odd.

Do you have a title for your manuscript?

Sincerely,

E.O. Williams

Interestingly, William Bushby, Howard Hunt's contact, wrote a Castro Billard R.F.K. Novel, "Thompson R.I.P.", Random House 1987.
