

Dear Ed,

7/28/72

Thanks for your 7/22/4 and enclosures.

The Freed/CRIC thing is interesting and if their work can be trusted, valuable in computing the amount of expenditure that could be attributed to Bremer. Much of the rest is conjectural or can be dismissed as coincidence. The money has troubled me from the first, as has official f-uing.

The Bundy of the Esquire clip is, I take it, Mac. A pertinent observation.

The Jerry bit is over. He has sincerity of purpose, but hasn't troubled himself to be really familiar with the basic literature, wastes enormous amounts of time for many people, butts in where he shouldn't, if intending well, and it just isn't worth it. We have too many problems to assume those of or caused by the arrogant if dedicated ignorant. If I have to become a herit to escape these kinds of things, I guess I'll wind up regretting it didn't happen earlier. The cut throat is not healed by the coping of "love". The breached trust does not become more ethical here than in Germany by proclamation of honorable purpose (when there really is none) or as Jerry put it "good conscience". The manner of the entire thing, its futility and worse, the puerile self-justifications are too much. These irrations and unthinker have done nothing but pontificate for years and now they know it all, thanks to nothing they did. And really they don't know and they don't think. I will have nothing more to do with either such personal relationships nor such unthinking irresponsibility.

I didn't know oyes has withdrawn his book. I knew of cancellation. I think both Smith and Lesar read it and I suspect Bud did. But goes for the farout, and Mafia is that.

Gervais: I started writing a book and laid aside not only because of sudden silence from N.O. which happened, but because of other more urgent pressures. Tentative title gives my first and continuing theory: "The Double Double-Cross." I'm getting the Vancouver Sun pieces, as if I asked you to try, don't bother, thanks. It has possibilities I saw in 5/67, when I first met him and spoke with him. He nixed them, but it is public domain now, as I conceive what I have in mind. More than just the kind of thing that is obvious.

I do let the internecine battles bother me out of personal feelings (my own and for the fools), because with honor we could work together well and accomplish more, and I suppose from the bit of the Old Testament that lingers in me. I know I shouldn't.

Rand study: how far did you go and where? I've been meaning to make a different kind of effort but there hasn't been time. New president local boy.

Bremer's papers must be kept secret until the trial if his rights are to be preserved. I am quite curious about them but see no proper or legal alternative. I have never had any doubt but that he is insane. But that doesn't answer all the questions and may in itself create others.

Interesting how in going over old stuff we see what we didn't or forgot if we did. The 1966 clip from Epstein in Esquire reminds me of something I should have sought long ago and will.

The Watergate Caper grows more interesting and less of what the papers know is coming out, which means it goes too high up. If you have old LTPs going back to 1965, can you please send me xeroxes of Littauer & Wilkinson, 500 Fifth ave, until they end, I suspect 1968-9 and anything on personnel, which besides "unt included a Carolyn Blackmore. I wonder if they sold the business and if so, new name. Inadequate reporting includes what was filed in court. Not impossible for Mardian to figure in this from his address. Conjecture as of now.

Thanks, best.

Dear Harold,
An interesting, if
not entirely reliable
article.

I have hit a stone
wall on the "Mysterious Rama Report", Project
Star.

The F.B.I. "Closed mouths" in the Bremer Case. His journals (aka Siskam), possessions,
and contacts - all enveloped
in a web of silence.

He'll just be put away. Perhaps declared insane.

Notice how each assassination needs
a higher level of executive administration.

Sincerely,

Dear Harold,

Good to talk to
you.

As you say, I'm hardly an expert with the present ambience. Still, I would find it shocking that Jerry would ever do a dishonest or malign act against you - if only because of his deep feelings towards you and your wife.
Perhaps, an error of judgement or interpretation ----- . Yet do you not have more in common with J.P. than that which divides you? Of course, I don't know.

Will check on "Neely". His medical "research" academically unacceptable which is hardly conclusive as the enclosure suggests. The premise - Bremer is psychotic - and ipso facto
"a lone assassin" has no validity. Dick Gregory on Nov. 15, 1966 in The East Village Other: "George Wallace would be killed by the same white - crackers that get his money from the mines

of Africa because Wallace wouldn't review, up foreign investments.

Tracy's handbook is book. Smith or Herzog read it.

Glad you share my analysis
of Ray.

The Mysteries of the Assassinations and Vietnam
Bang like a scandal over America.

The General P.P. also very incomplete with little internal data, N.S.C meetings or documentation on the H.B.F. right. Very lacunae.

The Gervais data a good expose piece.

Hope a collaborator can be found. Your raw data is sensational.

Don't let the convoluted
intermediate battles bother
you.

Your historical achievement is secure now. Enclosures below.

Take good care of yourself.

Sincerely,

Ed
