Dear Ed,

The Globe and dail WYT reprint on reprints and publishing tells it like it is, alas. What the story doesn't say is the influence this has on what can be published and promoted and accomodated on limited shelf space. This is consistent with what Frank told we early e.m. 5/8, that he has his next book selected, and the lack of enthusiasm on the part of the Doubleday people present. Frank has learned that the bed is the best place for a where.

Ross Houro's Vatergate Caper story has a solid line of reasoning and a little fact the reporting making of which I've not seen elsewhere, so vy glad to get it and anything else. Not only because of amiliar names, familiar faces.

You do Joesten an injustice. Does he not have the complete truth at the very first of each issue:"A the News That's UAFIT to Frint"? If this is never enough to prepare for what follows, it is at least a point in his favor. Few as they are, the one should be freely acknowledged. I doubt the Veritas outfit is LBJ's.

With my experience, I'd have to consider have was minquoted in hat have based on my knowledge of him, I could becieve not.

Considering that the Kaplan-Vidal stuff was not theirs to begin with, that Turner and Minkle had to farm it out figures. It comes largely from the work of a friend, so 1^od welcome any news od runors on any aspect.

Nothing new except the impending evil of which I warned and the contamination of those who would neither permit themelves to do better nor to know better. The telling of time will be bad enough.

We have had steady rain, that is daily, for three seeks. But there has been little d mage because we are so high.

Hasty thanks,
