Dear Harold,

Udale's article on Hunt (sent under separate cover) quite interesting.

"Executive Action", while not a Bad Movie, is critically inept although popular and thus constructive on a mass level. Lipton listed in the credits.

McCaul is wrong on "The Realist" article. Yet as a public figure he would have to prove it was knowingly false -----.

I first came across the Hoover memo via Forster. Rather dull.

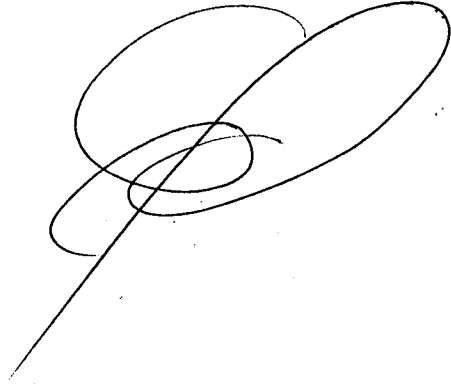

Oglesby has a fine mind but a confused, unstable personality.

Skalmick, like any "manman", cannot be refuted.

I do not at this time any Watergate book will be successful. Much data

yet too much is below
the surface.

Yes, I would appreciate
a copy of this data.
