Dear Harold,

The points made by Sprague are not unfounded. The Schweitzer Committee data alone establishes my deal material and new a cover-up by the F.B.I./CIA/D.I. and White House to put out an accused alone status before an investigation. The problem is not the paucity of proof but its volume.

The failure of any agency or authority to investigate speaks for itself. When Patterner told New Times that only the press could bring this out, he aptly described "The D.I.!" This is why the "nuts" make high. They say why has the press and Government done nothing? Indeed, why? Once one could accept ignorance, lack, and prejudice as a "Heason". That won't wash now.

Congress is the wrong agency! But who else is there?

The Watergate
prosecution was as corrupt as the crime! No, it's unlikely the D.C. or Courts will move.

The CIA stuff with its press "assets" and reposed unwritten stories is the tip of the iceberg.
