

Dear Scott,

6/5/97

Please excuse the brevity. Just finished book-length ms on that stinker Hall of the ARMB and what he wrote. Tired me and put me behind on other things.

Clippings helpful, thanks. Liz Smith is full of, but it is good to know what she tells so many.

Years ago I decided I'd not have time for souvenirs and in recent years my interest in the CIA has been limited to what can be relevant.

Which is fairly broad!

Like that recent stuff on Guatemala.

Sorry to hear of the bad shape Penn Jones is in. He has been paranoid for years but a nice guy who always intended what he considered to be well.

I've not read the Powers book on Holmes and do not intend to, as per the above.

I've not heard from Jones in years. When [redacted] broke up the craziest thing of the many crazy things Garrison did or planned, Jones immediately said I was a CIA agent!

He probably believed it, too!

It got so bad his first wife had to put him out.

He was fortunate that the second woman has looked out for him so well.

Thanks and best,

Harold

Dear Harold,

Enclosed please find copies of the latest developments on the Ray situation. There is also a clipping on Who killed JFK by L. Smith. Just received some videos on the CIA, they make an excellent addition to my video library. These videos tell the history of the CIA from the start with info and footage on Angleton, Ames and how the CIA deals with terrorism today. Was at a memorabilia show 2 weekends ago and I found a dealer who had lots of vintage JFK memorabilia. He had all kinds of political buttons with LBJ, JFK, RFK, Adlai Stevenson. He also had plenty of old magazines pertaining to JFK's administration and his assassination. I purchased a Newsweek magazine from 12/63 with JFK on the cover and 3 Time magazines from 1952. The Time magazines pertain to Nixon and the election of Ike to the presidency. This dealer told me that he had found much of this political material at an estate sale from a prominent Democratic family on Long Island. I believe the name of this family was Greene. Thought you'd be interested to hear about this. Heard from Andy from Last Hurrah that Penn Jones is near death. Have you heard anything about this? Ordered the book on Richard Helms titled The man who kept the secrets by Powers. Have you read this book? If so, can you give me any insight into it? My house repairs are at a kind of standstill as I now wait for my best friend to come help me. Will install new basement windows first then begin to tear off the old layers of roofing and putting exterior plywood on my back and front rooms. When I get a higher ladder I can finish priming the exterior of this house. Hope your house repairs are going good. Hope you both are feeling well.

P.S. Hope these clippings are useful for your files
