Dear Scott,

4/2/91

It is a nice, bright painting and we particularly appreciate that you did it as a birthday present for both of us. As you realize, with this a glass house we have little wall space but if Lil can figure where she'd like it that is where it will be. The first one is hung, thanks.

Your birthday was my father's birthday.

Thanks for the clippings. The Dorman propaganda is not any new peek at any Oswald interview and I do not believe Hosty's story about those notes. I believe he wrote them out from the nothing in his typed report just for use in his book, Besides which he published them in facsimile in his crappyy dishonest book.

ARRB will do anything to make it appear that it is bringing what is new to light when it is not bringing anything at all about the assassination to light.

If the blacks and the King family in particular had not taken the opposite view 30 years ago there would have been a trial then. The SCIC agreed with the deal the DJ came up with to avoid the trial it could not but lose.

Their explanation/justification is that they, King in particular, did not believe in capital punishment. Which then was not at all likely.

Sounds like your house repairs will take much time and effort, particularly a new roof.

I used to enjoy that kind of work. Put a temporary roof on the first floor of our two-storey hen house when the green lumber was frozen together and I had to use wedges to separate the boards. I put a tarpaper roof on and had to keep the tar on a hotplate to keep it liquid enough to use! After the got the roof on the second floor the roof on the first floor, which was flat, kept the concrete floor I poured for the second floor from leaking through.

I wonder often what the county/state did with all that concrete when they destroyed the ^(seven) buildings and put the farm into a park that returned to nature.

In some places the concrete was 5 feet deep!. I helped the contractor who was building the road now I270 and in return he sent his extra concrete to me. When I did not expect it it ^{became} became fill material. When I did expect it of course I was prepared to smooth it.

And it almost always came at dusk, when their day ended.

Thanks and best,

Harold

Dear Harold and Lil,

Just writing to wish you both a happy birthday. My birthday is this coming 4/10, I'll be 36. Am sending you both another painting that I have done as a birthday gift. I hope you like it. If you don't have any wall space for this painting please feel free to give it to someone who may like it. I know I've already sent you a painting but I thought that you might like this one as well.

I'm also enclosing various news clippings for your files. To me it is ironic how the King family has come out in support of Ray and his efforts to get a trial. Could you comment on the Newsday article titled New Peek at Oswald Interview?

I'm also enclosing a check for $30. Please send me an autographed Hard cover copy of Frame-Up. It is the only book of yours that I don't have with your autograph. Please autograph the book to me Scott Wilson. I'm also sending a movie poster for the movie JFK. As per the note on the poster, could you autograph this poster to me where the stick on note is and send it back to me with the copy of Frame-Up. It would mean much to me if you would sign this poster to me and then autograph it. To me that would make this poster a rare collectors item. Thanks.

Everything with me is going well. Been busy with my job, repairing my house and raising my kids. I have to take the roof off of my house, rebuild the kitchen, bathroom and scrape and paint the entire exterior of this house. Lots of work to be done. The kids are all good especially the baby. My son has been undergoing extensive dental work and the baby gets an ear infection every month. Otherwise they are all doing well.

Happy Birthday to you both and I hope you are both doing well and that you like this latest painting. I promise that I won't send any more paintings as you may not have the room or the want for any more. I've just sent this one as a birthday present.

Warmest Regards,

Scott Wilson
