

Scott Wilson
78 Toronot Ave.,
Massapequa, NY 11758

5/20/98

Dear Scott,

Thanks for your 5/17 and the enclosures. I've written Les Payne, who used to be a friend and wh^o I've not seen in years. He has changed. I guess with the paper's ownership.

Ray was not the assassin and from the official evidence could not have been so the racism is not relevant.

I'm in chapter 21 of the records I'm making for his tory on the Posner whoring with hstory.

Joesten finally went crazy and what he did on this was crazy-30 years ago,

We are having our trouble^s but we are making out. Have to leave in a few minutes for Hil's appointment with our dermatologist. We both have trouble walking but we are still getting around.

The guy who started the work comes when he has no other work. I agreed to that. He has started to get the paint off. He went after what was loose.

Hope all of you are doing well.

Thanks and best,

Hardy

5/17/98

Dear Harold,

Enclosed please find clippings of interest namely Ray obits and related MLK articles. Just finished reading Posner's book on MLK. Can you comment on Posner's characterization of the Ray brothers being racist individuals who would do anything for money. Can you tell me anything about what you are currently writing about Posner's book.

After all these years where do you believe that Ray found the Galt, Bridgman and Sneyd aliases?

Can you also tell me anything about the book that Joachim Joesten had written about the MLK case.

Hope you are both doing well. How is Lil doing with her legs and how are you? Is the housepainting coming along OK?

Will be in touch when there are more clippings to send.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Scott Wilson".