

Beasley
Narration
W. M. Russell

see
96-7
Ballistics

1 white Mustangs in the area of Terpan in 2 that night, extensive investigation was 3 made, including to the Rebel Motel, where 4 a registration card reflected one, Eric
5 S. Galt, had registered at approximately 6 7:15 P.M. on the evening of April the 3rd.
7 He was driving a Mustang, bearing Alabama
8 license 1-38993, with an address, 2000
9 South Highland, Birmingham, Alabama.

10 The proof would further show that 11 Mr. Ivy Welch, who was the night manager
12 of this Rebel Motel, observed this par-
13 ticular car parked there during that night;
14 he observed the Mexican stickers on this 15 car, and also verified the license number.

16 After having traced the rifle through 17 the manufacturer and to Biscuit Bay, the 18 State would show through its files in 19 of Auto Marine, a sporting goods store
20 located in Birmingham, that on Friday, March 21 25th, it sold a 243 caliber Remington
22 rifle which is a little smaller caliber
23 than the 30.06, to a Birmingham resident
24 who is very likely the same person