

The Great and venerable G. V. G. and M. C. G. have found it their policy to think in profit. Their memories be solid and of the purest gold. They have been honored to accept figures of majority, certain commitments, and commissions which I assure you will be carried out with the utmost skill ~~and~~ that only genius is able to effect. The work of Benvenuto Cellini runs in their veins. If you will pardon the deficiencies in time (historical). Of you - I am honored to serve and as you have our word suffering from some kind of physical nervous break. However, I think that there is much to be accomplished and with the directors help we cannot put this. Mental illness is difficult to describe. It is also difficult to endure. Joe G. G.
