Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Since you, in all probability, have never heard of INFO, a short bit of background is in order. We are a small study group, meeting weekly, with the following goals:

- TO PICK A SUBJECT WORTHY OF KNOWLEDGE
- TO INVESTIGATE THE SUBJECT OBJECTIVELY
- TO BECOME WELL INFORMED ON THE SUBJECT
- TO MAINTAIN A CATALOG OF INFORMATION ON THE SUBJECT

We believe that "A little knowledge is a dangerous thing", and that "Knowledge without action is like an axe without a handle". Our motto is "KNOWLEDGE IN ACTION, TO DO THE MOST GOOD FOR THE MOST PEOPLE". Our subject, chosen some five years ago at our inception, is "THE ASSASSINATION OF JFK". Our problems began when we ask ourselves the investigatory five "W's", Who, What, Where, When, and Why? So much for background and cliché, and on to the point.

While looking over a page from THE NATIONAL ENQUIRER, (copy inclosed), we found an article by Rod Gibson, with many quotes attributed to you. We had several questions about the article, and wrote a letter (copy inclosed), to Ann Bell, Readers Service to find the answers. In her answer, (copy inclosed), she directed us to you. Is it possible that you could answer any or all of the questions that we directed to her?

Another problem that we hope that you can help us with is the dilemma over some of the books that you have written. All of us have a copy of WHITEWASH-THE REPORT ON THE WARREN REPORT, and most of us have a copy of, WHITEWASH II, THE FBI-SECRET SERVICE COVER-UP, both of which I might add, we consider to be excellent works. The problem is with the cross references in WHITEWASH II, which refer to pages in WHITEWASH. The subject matter does not tie in, as it never relates to the same subject. We think that we know the reason, but have been unable to find a solution. All of the books that we have are published by Dell Publishing Co., Inc., in paper back, and we think that they must be re-prints of hard back books. However there is no mention in the front of either of the two books of any previous printing. Did they come out as hard backs, and if so can you suggest a source?

Further, we have found mention of WHITEWASH IV-JFK ASSASSINATION TRANSCRIPT in some of the articles that we have read, but we can not find the book. Can you help us?

Still further, is there a WHITEWASH III, and is there any WHITEWASH V,...etc? If so, again, can you tell us where we might find them?

Your assistance in answering any of the above questions would be greatly appreciated.

Thanking you in advance, we remain,

Respectfully yours,

B.R. Tate,
