Mr. Emanuel Fawcett, Esq.
695 Madison Ave.,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Harry,

It seems that I spent time writing letters and you do not spend time writing answers. I am worried. I fear that you may be letting the statute of limitations run on both Dell and Meredith.

I have just returned from a trip that included Louisiana. There, despite the Tobey and Nayer affidavits filed in the Bringuier case, of which you have copies, it seems that Dell distributed the fourth printing that they have included in no accounting to date. I saw a copy in the hands of one of Clay Shaw's lawyers the evening of 11/22.

Also, I have just had a request to go to New York on 1/15, a Saturday, to tape a TV show that night. I would like to be able to get together with you that day so we can discuss all of this. Getting to New York is not easy for me. This occasion will pay the expenses and make it possible.

Unless there has been a change in the Metroliner schedule, I can be in Penn Station 11:30 a.m. or wherever you will be at about noon.

Okay?

Harold Weinstock
