Dear Mr. Weisberg:

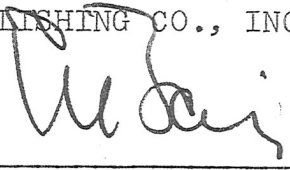

Thank you for your letter of April 27th.

Bringuier's complaint sounded in libel even though we both agree that his complaint was frivolous. You should be aware that Paragraph 5 of our contract specifically refers to alleged libel.

I do appreciate the expense you have been put to and the fact that your interests might well have better been served by full trial of Bringuier's claims. In order to try to ameliorate the situation, I will speak with Saga's lawyer and see if I cannot help this situation.

Cordially,

DELL PUBLISHING CO., INC.
