Dear John,

Star

Thank you for the April 1969 Dell royalty statement on WHITEWASH II. It covers the third royalty period, but it is the first statement - have ever received on that book. If you have the others, I'd appreciate copies. If you do not, if they were not supplied, I presume Dell will.

John Friedman phoned me the other night. I asked him to check with you to be certain the NYTimes had delivered the copy of GOUP WRECK to you. If they hadn't, he was to ask Salisbury's secretary about it. I'd like to know whether you do have it, for if you do not, I have to scrape up a copy somewhere.

I have not been able to get to writing the new material. It is just as well, for there are constant developments and the story has not yet been assaulted. But I will soon.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
