

Jan 31/67 - When I was waiting for John Mann in the lobby of the bldg in which Bill was also waiting. I went to the reception desk. It was late - Della - and just in between.
I asked the clerk. He had not heard of the book. He then said that when Bill asked him to make a copy of his minutes he had no trouble in making his own at the end of the year. He I showed this to John. He was surprised.
