Dear Miss Gutstein,

My entire expenses for the recent trip to New York were $50.37. If you want a breakdown let me know.

What reaction I had to the Dean show was good. Hope you found it that way.

Paul Noble told me there has been no change in the WNEW-TV "Special". It is scheduled for taping 1/31, they want us there 1/30 and I'll probably go to New York 1/29. They pay the expenses. But I'll be there if you want to talk to me.

(Bob Scott) /
Last night I did a couple of hours by phone with WMAC radio, Boston, for use Tuesday after 6 p.m., on the Manchester second instalment. We got to talking and he'd like me to go to Boston if he gets approval, ~~from~~ both the radio and the TV side of that station. Again, they will pay the expenses. But if I go there, I also have an invitation to speak at Trinity College in Hartford and to be on the Mike Hild show on the CBS station there, WINF, with possibly a few other things that can be picked up in Hartford. If I do this, can you pay the extra expenses? There will be nothing from Trinity College.

Thereafter I go to Burlington, Vermont, to address I do not know exactly who under some kind of History Department sponsorship. They pay a very small honorarium, so small it does not pay, but a friend is involved, so I could not refuse. Vermont is 2/9, and I'll try and work backward from there, Boston 2/8, Hartford 2/7. If you want me to do something in New York or elsewhere 2/6 or 2/10 I can. Or is it possible you'd like me to do something these scheduled days, say if WMAC cannot do anything at that time?

Norton Mockridge wrote an interesting column that appeared in the Washington Daily News (Scripps-Howard) 1/11/67. I do not know if you can or would like to do anything with it. It seems that Jerome Weidman was invited to a book and author lunch in the South. Dismayed at finding none of his books there he commented on it and was told, "Oh, don't worry about that li'l ole book. That's not important. We just wanted you here for your name - Mr. Weisberg."

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
