ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY,
NOVEMBER 22, 1963,
DALLAS, TEXAS

On August 18, 1978, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Florida, telephonically contacted the Lakeland, Florida, Resident Agency and advised that she had information concerning the John F.
Kennedy assassination. She stated that this information concerned an individual that she did not want to identify over the telephone and that she wanted a Federal Bureau of Investigation agent to visit her residence so that she could talk to him personally.

On August 18, 1978, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was interviewed. He advised that he was familiar with [REDACTED] who lived at [REDACTED]. He stated that his department has had experience in the past with her "stories," and it has been their experience that she greatly exaggerates the facts. He stated that he has been her neighbor for a number of years, and it has been his experience that her reliability concerning her stories was questionable.

On August 21, 1978, [REDACTED]
telephonically contacted the Federal Bureau of Investigation Resident Agency and advised that he had been contacted on two separate occasions by [REDACTED] and that he had interviewed her in his office along with his investigator, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He stated that her story, which he related and was essentially the same as her interview on August 18, 1978, seemed to him to be very implausible. He stated that he and his investigator were both skeptical of the story and had advised her to contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation since neither one of them could do anything with the information.

On August 18, 1978, [REDACTED] was interviewed at her residence, [REDACTED] Florida, and that interview is as follows:
