ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
DALLAS, TEXAS
NOVEMBER 22, 1963

Aaron Kohn, Managing Director of the Metropolitan Crime Commission, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised on May 4, 1967, that "Newsweek" magazine is planning an article which will expose some of the activities of the District Attorney for the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, and his investigation of the alleged plot to assassinate President John Fitzgerald Kennedy. Kohn advised that on Monday, May 8, 1967, "Newsweek" magazine will publish an article which will allege that two witnesses have been intimidated by Garrison or Garrison's staff. Kohn advised that at the present time the magazine is waiting clearance to publish this article from the magazine's legal division.

Kohn stated that one of the incidents involved efforts by one of Garrison's investigators named Lynn Loisel, attempting to offer a close friend of David Ferrie named Alvin Beaubouef, $3,000.00 and a job with an airline to provide false testimony. Beaubouef arranged for the interview to occur in the office of Attorney Hugh Exnicios and the conversation involving this bribe was recorded by Attorney Exnicios.

Kohn advised that he has been advised that Exnicios flew to Washington or New York, and tried to sell the tape to the National Broadcasting Company, who did not purchase it. Exnicios then reported the matter to the District Attorney in Jefferson Parish, Frank Langridge, who listened to the tape and then advised District Attorney Garrison of the fact that a record of the offer to bribe Beaubouef was in existence. Kohn stated that two of Garrison's investigators then contacted Beaubouef and by threats induced him to sign a statement in which he sets forth that the offer made to him was not considered to be a bribe.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

Kohn advised that another individual by the name of Carlos Quiroga was told by Jim Garrison that his life would be in danger if he did not testify for Garrison. Kohn advised that Quiroga believed that he was given a rigged lie detector test by one of Garrison's investigators.

Aaron Kohn further advised that he has learned that Jim Garrison is claiming to have resigned from the National Guard. Kohn advised that he has received information that Garrison was offered the opportunity of resigning his commission with the National Guard or facing military charges. Kohn advised that Garrison is alleged to have falsified his drill duty certifications for approximately six months, for which he was paid. Mr. Kohn advised that Garrison might be in violation of federal statutes for this alleged fraud.

Mr. Kohn advised that he received a telephone call from Jack S. Martin, in which Martin told him that he is in possession of a report of the Special Agent In Charge, United States Secret Service, John Rice, in which Rice reports information which is not correct. Kohn advised that Martin further alleges Herman Kohlman, an Assistant District Attorney, is also quoted in this report and Martin claims that this information is incorrectly reported. Kohn advised that Martin alleges that the records of the FBI will establish that he is a responsible individual.
