

2 FBI Agents Will Testify To Grand Jury

The Orleans Parish Grand Jury, pursuing Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's Kennedy death plot investigation, was scheduled to hear four witnesses today — two of them FBI agents who probed aspects of the assassination here in 1963.

Agents subpoenaed by the jury are a still active FBI man, Regis Kennedy of New Orleans, and a former bureau operative, Warren DeBrueys.

Cuban sources in New Orleans said they remembered Kennedy and DeBrueys attending meetings of anti-Castro groups organized to fight the island's Communist regime in 1961.

THE NAMES OF BOTH men appear frequently on FBI reports made during the Warren Commission investigation of the late President's murder.

Kennedy questioned one-time airline pilot David W. Ferrie when he was arrested by Garrison's office three days after the assassination and held for federal investigation.

Garrison charges Ferrie was a pivotal figure in what the DA says was a plot conceived here in September, 1963, to kill President John F. Kennedy at Dallas two months later.

HE CONTENDS FERRIE conspired with Lee Harvey Oswald, whom the Warren Commission concluded was the President's lone assassin, and 54-year-old Clay L. Shaw to commit the slaying.

Shaw, a retired New Orleans businessman, was indicted in the conspiracy March 22. He is free on $10,000 bond pending trial.

not a Communist, as the Warren Commission said, but a federal undercover agent who aided the cause of anti-Castro Cuban organizations here.

HE HAS CHARGED that the Central Intelligence Agency and the FBI engaged in a massive coverup to dupe the Warren Commission and mask the participation of CIA-employed persons in Kennedy's murder.

Two other witnesses called by the grand jury are 30-year-old Carlos Quiroga of New Orleans, a once active anti-Castro leader, and a New Orleans truck salesman Oscar Deslatte.

DESLATTE SAID HE was approached in 1961 — before the Bay of Pigs invasion — by two men who wanted to purchase trucks. He said one of them used the name Oswald and a purchase offer was made in that name.

DA's office sources pointed out that Lee Harvey Oswald was still in Russia at the time. He did not return to New Orleans until early 1963.

A bid sheet from Deslatte's firm with Oswald's name on it was taken as evidence by the FBI on Nov. 25, 1963 — three days after the President's death. It was not introduced as evidence before the Warren Commission.

Quiroga is a former close associate of Sergio Arcacha Smith, 44, an erstwhile leader of the Cuban Democratic Revolutionary Front and a fugitive from Garrison's inquiry.
