Subjects Seymour Kurtz and his law partner, Harold Turner, civil attorneys in Chicago, Illinois, were indicted on ITSMV charges in Houston and arrested by FBI Agents in Chicago 6/4/59, they waived removal in Chicago and were ordered to appear in Houston for trial. Houston Office was advised by Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) Charles D. Cottingham on 7/6/59 that on 6/26/59, Kurtz and Turner, represented by Percy Foreman, were arraigned in Chambers before Federal Judge Ben C. Connally in Houston. Foreman told Judge Connally that additional time would be needed to investigate an alleged ransacking of the law office of Kurtz and Turner by FBI Agents in Chicago. Foreman did not furnish any details of the alleged ransacking.
