attorney Texas

"Dallas Times Herald," March 23, 1964, states PERCY FOREMAN has resigned as Chief Defense Counsel for JACK RUBY due to "the system of divided authority" under which the RUBY defense effort was being conducted.

He is quoted in the letter to RUBY as stating EVA GRANT, RUBY's sister, insists retaining and exercising a general power of attorney for RUBY, that FOREMAN would thus be representing her which he does not care to do. He is quoted as disagreeing with attorney STANLEY KAUFMAN, Civil Attorney, who has represented RUBY, and further as stating he preferred to work alone rather than with the previous attorneys, BURLESON and TONAHILL.
