OSWALD AND THE CIA

From the acclaimed author of JFK and Vietnam comes the most unsettling, revelatory book about the CIA and the Cold War to be published in a decade. Sure to cause a firestorm of controversy, this book uncovers more than any previous inquiry of the government's role in the Kennedy assassination.

How involved was the CIA with Lee Harvey Oswald? Why was Oswald's file tampered with before the assassination of John Kennedy? And why were significant documents from it removed afterward? Finally, we have answers to these questions, answers not from theories, but from the primary sources themselves. John Newman has interviewed dozens of high-placed officials who have never before spoken candidly on these sensitive issues. He has thoroughly examined the vast body of new material forced into release by the JFK Records Act of 1992. Oswald and the CIA is a devastating report based on indisputable evidence. Written by a historian who spent more than twenty years with the U.S. intelligence community, it is an insider's account of the secret record. Bit by bit, document by document, the reader watches Oswald's file build as it was observed through the eyes of the intelligence officers who actually handled those files. The Oswald paper trail inside the CIA is a gripping journey through the darkest corners of the Agency's Clandestine Services.

The Oswald connection leads through the agency's most secret elements and their operations, including the Soviet Russia Division, Angelton's Counter-Intelligence Staff, and the Special Affairs Staff's anti-Cuban operations. To look at the Oswald file is to look at the most sensitive CIA operation of the Cold War. The story is as alarming as it is tragic; for the lies and the manipulations it reveals lead directly to the President's murder.

JOHN NEWMAN is an Assistant Professor at the University of Maryland. He is the author of JFK and Vietnam, a widely acclaimed book which traces Vietnam policy during the Kennedy administration. Dr. Newman has twenty years experience as a military intelligence officer.

New revelations from an intimate participant

In the Eye of the Storm: Castro, Khrushchev, Kennedy and the Missile Crisis

CARLOS LECHUGA

In 1962, during the nascent days of what was to become the most perilous incident of the Cold War, Carlos Lechuga was rushed to New York to take up the post of Cuban ambassador to the United Nations. For the first time, in these startling pages, he offers both the Cuban perspective and a personal insider's view of the Cuban missile crisis, with supporting documents and arguments from the three countries involved. Readers will find secret, sometimes tense, letters exchanged among the leaders of Cuba, the U.S., and especially the Soviet Union, published here for the first time; personal testimony from Fidel Castro, provided after 30 years' distance from the event; a discussion of the U.N. role and a description of U Thant's meeting with Castro; and revelations of the author's participation in a secret dialogue between Washington and Havana immediately prior to the assassination of President Kennedy—talks that might well have led to a thaw in U.S.-Cuban relations.

CARLOS LECHUGA is an award-winning journalist and longtime diplomat who has represented Cuba in numerous international conferences and activities of state.

The Plot to Kill Kennedy and Castro

CLAUDIA FURIATI Second Edition

This book names five men who, it alleges, shot John F. Kennedy, not a single one of them Oswald. The author offers circumstantial evidence implicating the Mafia, anti-Castro Cuban exiles, and key figures in the CIA—notably Richard Helms and David Atlee Phillips—in a complex conspiracy to assassinate both Kennedy and Castro. Arguing that Helms and Phillips were deeply involved in the CIA's anti-Castro efforts, the book alleges that Helms masterminded the assassination plot and Phillips acted as facilitator, with particular help from Havana-based Mafia boss Santos Trafficante and his associates, among them Jack Ruby. The book also offers detailed evidence of Oswald's links to the CIA, along with the Cuban visa application he made in Mexico City. $14.95p, ISBN 1-875284-85-0; 168 pages, 5½ x 8 ½, notes, 12 appendices, HISTORY

Greetings from The Assassination Chronicles,

We are pleased to send you this complimentary copy. The Assassination Chronicles is a newsmagazine devoted to providing information on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, Robert Kennedy, Martin Luther King, Jr., and related events. This newsmagazine contains exciting articles and photos from some of the foremost researchers in the world and promises to keep even the casual reader informed on recent events. Besides the four issues of The Assassination Chronicles each year, The JFK Resource Group publishes a mail order listing of new and hard-to-find assassination related books and videos for your convenience (delivered right to your home or office.) We often offer autographed copies and other special items.

As JFK-Lancer Publications and Productions, we actively support the research community by publishing research manuscripts and student essays on the various details of the assassination cases. These manuscripts are listed on the JFK Resource Group book list and frequently featured in the newsmagazine. To continue interest in the JFK case, we hold exhibits, with eyewitnesses and/or authors as speakers, for school children and adults. We also work closely with educators around the country developing learning modules and workbooks for the classroom.

It is our hope that interested persons, such as yourself, will become new subscribers and even contribute to this cause.
