

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 10, 1974

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you for your recent inquiry concerning the transcripts of the pertinent Watergate tapes. Unfortunately, our supply is exhausted. However, copies can be obtained from the Government Printing Office at $12.25 by writing: The Government Printing Office Main Bookstore, 710 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, D.C. 20401.

You should also know that two paperback firms -- Dell and Bantam -- have brought out editions that sell in the $2.45 to $2.95 price range. These are available at newsstands and bookstores.

You may also obtain the transcripts from the Chicago Tribune for $1.50 by writing: Chicago Tribune Publishing Service Office, Department T, 435 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

Meanwhile, I am enclosing a copy of the President's speech of April 29.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Agnes Waldron
Assistant to the Press Secretary
