

For the Record

James Earl Ray—Due to an editing error, a story in Sunday's editions inaccurately stated an allegation made by William F. Pepper, the attorney for convicted assassin James Earl Ray. Pepper contends that U.S. Army snipers were stationed near the Lorraine Motel as backup when the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. was killed in 1968, and that Army superiors then ordered the soldiers out of the area. The story also inaccurately named a Los Angeles church pastored by the Rev. James M. Lawson Jr. The correct name is Holman United Methodist Church.

LA TIMES
7 JAN 97