ILIGAN CITY, Dec. 10 —(PNS) — A Yemenite from California under surveillance for some time on suspicion of possible complicity in the assassination of "VIPs" in the US, was arrested here Sunday noon.

It took five law enforcers to subdue Ali All Sauidi, about 35, of Modesto, California. He had run into a local hospital, hid in an X-ray room, and put up a fight.

Arresting officers, apparently bound by secrecy, would not give details about the Yemenite.

Sauidi, who showed an identification card purportedly issued by the Stevedores Union of California, was taken to Marawi City for interrogation by government intelligence men.

The Yemenite could not produce papers to show that he had entered the country legally, it was learned.

Mandangan reportedly had been trailing Sauidi for two months in Davao, Cotabato, and Iligan City.

Mandangan trailed Sauidi at the Maria Cristina airport and trailed him to Iligan where the Yemenite tried to resist arrest and ran into the Dr. Uy Hospital where he hid in the X-ray room.
