

S-T Kups Column 7/9/73

car Named Desire" with CHICAGO TODAY'S James Broderick, who co-stars with Sandy Dennis in the play, will be our guest at our luncheon show tomorrow in the Continental Plaza. . . Tony Zoppi of

Sandi Freeman

Las Vegas, formerly a top newspaperman in Texas, has written an intimate story on the hectic life of Jack Ruby, the alleged assassin of Lee Oswald. The story is called "Jack Ruby in Retrospect" and will be published in Coronet magazine in November, on the 10th anniversary of the Dallas tragedy. Tony said "Jack Ruby was in my office the morning President Kennedy arrived in Dallas and I was the only newspaperman who interviewed Ruby at length after the Oswald shooting . . . and he gave me his reasons for committing the crime."

A pet show to include "every kind of pet imaginable" will be held in the International Amphitheater in February. . .