A Reporter's Report: The House Committee on Assassinations, getting little attention while the Big Issues are being debated in Washington, has been assembling information that could lead to startling disclosures. One is that James Earl Ray, convicted assassin of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., "undoubtedly" was part of a conspiracy. The committee is closing in on those who allegedly conspired with Ray. Another development involves Lee Harvey Oswald, generally believed to be the sole operative in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. But the House investigation is gathering information that escaped the Warren Commission — that Oswald had been on the payrolls of both the CIA and FBI.

NOW HEAR THIS: Bing Crosby was an unusual superstar. He was a private person who shunned the limelight as much as possible and downgraded his ability. He never considered himself a good actor, even after winning an Oscar for the role of a priest in "Going My Way." He would explain that by saying "I got
