

The N.Y. Times indexes for the years 1950-1967 inclusive were checked for ADAMS, Kenneth; BROWN, Jack; and MILTEER, J.A.. Only three references were found.

Oct. 7, 1956, page 44:3

Kasper at Klan Rally
Segregationist Facing Prosecution

Speaks in Alabama Town
Warrior, Ala., Oct. 6 (UP)

-- John Kasper, segregationist who faces a jail term for sedition and inciting a riot, addressed a Ku Klux Klan rally here last night.

The 26-year-old book seller shared the platform with Kenneth Adams, who faces assault charges arising from the attack on Nat (King) Cole, Negro singer, in Birmingham, Ala.

....

Oct. 28, 1960, page 10:2

2 More Americans

Arrested in Havana

Special to The New York Times
Havana, Oct. 27--Two more Americans, Guy Thompson and Meyer Fuchsberg, were arrested early this morning by the intelligence service of the Cuban Army. Both are business men with interests in Cuba.

The authorities said they were being "held for investigation."

(Both are described as being ~~in~~ in the textile industry -p.h.)

Two others, Jack Brown and John Charles Riley, both of Miami, were arrested here Oct. 18 when they arrived with a yacht with Key West registry.

They said that they had come to Havana to have the yacht repaired. They were turned over to immigration authorities today for a decision on whether ~~they should be deported.~~ they should be deported.

Aug. 21, 1965, page 10:1

Former Ku Klux Klan Head
Held in Theft of Explosive

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 20 (AP)- The Federal Bureau of Investigation said today it had arrested Kenneth Adams, a former Ku Klux Klan leader, in connection with the theft of a large cache of explosives from Fort McClellan.

Everett Ingram, an F.B.I. agent in the Birmingham Office, said Mr. Adams, a 45-year-old oil dealer in Anniston, appeared before United States Commissioner Ruby Price Robinson in Anniston ~~in~~ on a charge of having received stolen government property.

Bond was set at $5,000, and Mr. Adams was placed in the Calhoun County jail.

Mr. Ingram said the arrest followed an indictment by a federal grand jury in Birmingham yesterday.