Former Ku Klux Klan Head Held in Theft of Explosives

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 20
(AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation said today it had arrested Kenneth Adams a tormer Ku Kink Kinh leader, in connection with the theft of a large cache of explosives from Fort McClellan.

Everett Ingram, an F.B.I. agent in the Birmingham office, said Mr. Adams, a 45-year-old oil dealer in Anniston, appeared before United States Commissioner Ruby Price Robinson in Anniston on a charge of having received stolen dovernment property.

Bond was set at $5,000, and Mr. Adams was placed in the Galhoun County jail.

Mr. Ingram sald the arrest followed an indictment by a Federal grand jury in Birmingham yesterday.
