SOCIETY

Miss Maud Farrar to Wed Mr. Godfrey Kirkpatrick

MRS. ISAAC DAVIS STAMPS FARRAR formally announces this Monday the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Maud Ellen Farrar, to Mr. Godfrey Lyle Kirkpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Laird Kirkpatrick of this city. The date of the marriage will be announced later.

Miss Farrar, daughter of the late Mr. Farrar, is a graduate of H. Sophie Newcomb college and attended the graduate school of Tulane university. She also attended the University of Florence, Italy, on a Fulbright scholarship. Several seasons ago, she was formally introduced to society at a large reception given by her parents at the Orleans Club. During that Carnival time she was chosen a maid in the balls of the Atlanteans, the Knights of Momus and the Mistick Krewe of Comus. Her mother is the former Miss Maude Tobin White, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sidney Johnston White of this city. Miss Farrar's paternal grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Howard Farrar. She is a collateral descendant of Jefferson Davis, only president of the Confederacy.

Mr. Kirkpatrick's mother is the former Miss Marjorie Evelyn Miller, daughter of Mrs. Eugene Keller Miller of New Orleans and the late Mr. Miller of Jackson, La. The bridegroom-to-be's maternal great-grandfather was the Rev. Charles Copeland Miller of Jackson, La., and a cofounder of Centenary college. He is also a collateral descendant of President Zachary Taylor. Mr. Kirkpatrick attended the Pasadena Playhouse in Pasadena, Calif., and is presently studying at Tulane university.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Eugene Brown have as their guests for of Mrs. Keeley. The reception rooms were adorned for the occasion with bouquets of pink snapdragons. During her visit, Mrs. Keeley will be entertained at several informal gatherings.

Returning several days ago from Lewisburg, La., where they spent a short time at the family country home were Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hayne Jr. and the former's niece, Mrs. William B. Rudolf and Mr. Rudolf and their twin daughters, Mildred and Mary Baldwin.

Many reservations for luncheon parties have been made this Monday in connection with Red Cross Day at the races, which will take place at the New Orleans Fair Grounds. Mrs. Harry McCall Jr. is chairman of the event and Mrs. John B. Smallpage, vice-chairman.

The Friends of the Cabildo will entertain at a lecture reception Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Sala Capitular of the Cabildo. Dr. John P. Dyer, dean of the University college of Tulane university, the guest the program Monday afternoon at the gathering of members of the Fine Arts Club. The event will take place at 3:30 o'clock at Cunningham Observatory on the Tulane university campus. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Dagmar Renshaw Lebrenton.

The second in the series of 1958 lecture teas for members of the De Paul Hospital Guild will take place Feb. 24 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the hospital in Henry Clay ave. Dr. Kenneth A. Ritter, the guest speaker, will be introduced by Mrs. Harold Rives, program chairman. Mrs. Aynaud F. Hebert is president of the Guild.

At the tea hour Mrs. Felix W. Gaudin, hospitality chairman, will be assisted by the hostesses, Mrs. Thelma Mills and Mrs. James Hanemann.

Taking turns at the tea table will be Mrs. Ritter and Mmes. Benjamin C. Brown, Joseph Daum, and H. Richmond Favrot. Assisting in serving will be Mmes. Claiborne Perrilliat, Raymond F. Hufft, Winifred Barnum Gallen, Howard W. Lenfant, and Sidney L. Soniat.

News of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Latter, who are touring Europe, tells that Mr. Latter was a guest at the quarterly dinner of the 400-year-old Pickwick Club in London, England. A guest of the club chairman, Mr. William T. Boston, O.B.E., (Mr. Augustus Snodgrass), Mr. Latter was presented to the club daughter of Mrs. Isaac Davis Stamps Farrar and the late Mr. Farrar, whose betrothal to Mr. Godfrey Lyle Kirkpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Laird Kirkpatrick, is formally announced this Monday by her mother. Plans for the marriage will be made known at a later date.

MISS MAUD ELLEN FARRAR

CLAYTON RAND

The Way Women Act

In an effort to gather material for a book entitled "The Art of Supervising Women," Miss Susan M. Rogers spent two years in a fact-finding effort to determine why women act like they do.

Miss Rogers says the female end or think money is the ke to security.

Miss Rogers, who believes i woman's intuition, says, "It is al solutely unbelievable how wome go by inner perception."