Dear Mr. Weisberg,

You might recall that I wrote to you last August, and appreciated receiving a prompt reply from you. Do you happen to have an updated list of documents still classified at the Archives? (I have the list in the appendix of Farewell America which was recently on sale at our local bookstore after all these years; naturally the binding came apart upon opening it.)

FBI
EBOOKS
I would very much like to obtain copies of CD 663-665 along with CD 540, 548 and 729 if any or all have been declassified, possibly as a result of your determined efforts through the FIOPA. If they are available and you have copies could you send me a copy of each and let me know the cost so I can reimburse you.

I was very sorry to hear that Bud Fensterwald died recently, who had invited me to stay with him a year ago if I ever made it to Wash. D.C. He will be sorely missed.

Are you planning to attend the conference sponsored by Third Decade? I hope to make the trip.

Have you read CD 645 about Richard Giesbrecht of Winnipeg, referred to as MP T-1? I have written an article about him for Third Decade, although since have received several FBI memos and teletypes referring to him, along with some information (including CD 645 which the FBI did not send) from Bill Adams in San Jose, CA (which he obtained from AARC.) I am awaiting several more teletypes found in the Minneapolis-FBI files which have been sent to Washington for processing including a copy of one from Dallas to Headquarters about Giesbrecht. I would be interested in your views on Giesbrecht, "Isaacs", etc. (which was investigated by Boxley, Turner and Bethell for Garrison, but I can't get an explanation as to why Giesbrecht was not called to testify after all, unless it was because Ferrie could not be connected to Shaw, which Jane Rosconi suggested to me; she is head of research for Stone's upcoming movie.)

Yours sincerely,

Peter R. Whitmey

P.S. After writing an article about Simpson/Smele - "The Long Distance Phone Call" - for Third Decade, I was directed to CD 897 in the appendix of Six Seconds in Dallas which I had overlooked (although Simpson is referred to as one of 268 witnesses listed, his name was not in the index) by Sheldon Inkol of Toronto. It would appear that Simpson's phone call to Sgt. Dean was indeed a hoax, but I wonder why no clarification was made in the course of Dean's second and third W.C. interview and why wasn't CD 897 included in the W.C.'s supporting volumes? (You didn't mention Simpson in Photographic Whitewash. Had you already read CD 897?)

dated December 23, 1963, by Dallas, Texas, containing a report of the FBI to set forth the names, addresses and/or phone numbers contained in Oswald's address book. At page 696 of this report, certain entries are set forth with an indication that they appear on page 74 of the address book. Examination of the address book reveals that certain information has been omitted at this point in your report, including Special Agent Lacey's name, a telephone number, a license number, the date "Nov 1, 1963," and an address, "1114 Commerce St Dallas."

The Commission would like to be informed of the circumstances surrounding this omission. More particularly, it would desire the Commission in expediting the dissemination of this matter if we have the names of the agents, including supervisors, who prepared this portion of the report or made any decision to omit information from the report. Needless to say, we would like a full explanation.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

J. Lee Raddin,
General Counsel
