

When Stone bought the rights to make a movie of Garrison's book what exactly was he buying and making into his movie?

According to Stone himself it is all of Garrison's work, if that ^{word} ~~way~~ may be used to describe his multitudinous conspirators in multitudinous conspiracies.

Loose, as usual, with his words, Stone ~~told~~ said in his David Baron interview published in "Lagniappe" May 24 that he "added the researches (sic) of about 28 ~~years~~ years on top of Jim."

Laura Miller, writing about Stone's "big, meaty, much-ballyhooed, full-length, star-studded extravaganza of a movie" in that month "D Magazine," in Dallas, outlines the conspiracy Garrison alleges in his book - "it was factions inside the government, including the F.B.I., the ~~C.I.A.~~ C.I.A., and the Secret Service. Oh, and the Dallas Police Department and the Dallas County Sheriff's Department."

If this falls a bit short of what I recall ^{Garrison} he alleged, it is from an impartial source and I do not pretend to be impartial.

How Garrison managed to overlook an "assassination team" of "self-starters," words I've heard him use, from the Special Olympics I don't know. Maybe he did and I just can't remember all the conspirators he mentioned at one time or another.

Most responsible people, intending honesty and truthfulness, reading of ~~so~~ vast a conspiracy involving ^{as} ~~so~~ many agencies as only those Miller lists, might pause for a moment and wonder whether ~~it~~ it is humanly possible; human nature, for as large a number of agency and individual conspirators as Garrison's book alone requires, to let more than a quarter of a century pass without a word of regret, or of boasted accomplishment, or a written statement before death when after so long a time some certainly were aware that death impended and died. Or in self-defense if accused or identified, a record of some kind to be retrieved.

Is it possible that each and every one of the very, very many in all those government agencies had not a bit of concern over accusation or detection and thus was without any record of following official orders to use that as a defense?

That each and every one of these very many had absolute confidence that not one of those many others would squeel, giving him some need to be able to somehow defend himself?

Not one told a wife, a son, a daughter or a friend? It would not come out somehow?

And how about the ~~veritable multitude~~ ^{many} within those agencies who could not avoid having some knowledge? Or some reason to be suspicious? All of these people and not a single one worried about being charged as an accessory, before or after the fact or both?

This ~~is not to~~ ^{does} include those he accused of conspiring to cover it all up, all those in all the agencies who were aware of information not provided to the Warren Commission or to other agencies that had the need and the right to know, for example, those who provide information to the FBI and the Secret Service, which did virtually all of the Commission's information-collecting. (No, there never was any real investigation so I do not use that word. See _____)

It also does not include all the Members and counsel of the Warren Commission, which without doubt had information it did not follow up, ~~as~~ ^{who} reports that Oswald was connected with a federal agency. They also did not follow up on information they had that Oswald was not the complete loner their ~~Report~~ ^{Report} as well as the ~~first five volumes~~ ^{one} of the FBI ~~says~~ ^{says} he was.

All those with any kind of participation in this vast conspiracy were subject to the most serious charges, federal and state, as also were all those with any knowledge at all, which greatly enlarges the number of very vulnerable people, and after more than a quarter of a century, not a peep from anyone?

If Oliver Stone, Oscars and all, believes that, the wonder is that the Brooklyn Bridge was not sold to him - three times.

But seeing what he saw in it he went for it, hook, line and stinker that it is.

This to precede Garrison's record, what he failed to investigate that is relevant and what he said on all sides of everything.
