Re: Weisberg v. Dimondstein Book Company, Inc.

Dear Sirs:

On August 29, 1977 Weisberg filed a discovery motion which requested that you produce certain items and make them available for copying no later than September 29, 1977. As of today's date I have received no materials or communication in response to this discovery request.

I request that you advise me immediately as to the reason why you have not responded to plaintiff's discovery. If I do not hear from you by Monday, November 7, 1977, I will be forced to take action in court.

Sincerely yours,

James H. Lesar
