5/21/64/2)

Deputy Marshall Escorts Pair

Decatur, Illinois

of Fairmont City and Richard Lauchli (rear) of Collinsville

A manacled Donald Sturgis United States marshal into Fairmont City and Richard Federal Building in Springfield Wednesday for arraignare escorted by a deputy ment in connection with the government's sizure of weapons near Clinton Tuesday following a high-speed chase.

$20,000 Bond Set

By John R. Harpster Of the Herald Staff

Two men from whom undercover federal agents bought a large quantity of automatic firearms near Warralla College and along from Collinsville at my request.
I sincerely don't believe that he's guilty of the charges." arms near Wapella Tuesday were arraigned yesterday presented to a federal grand before U. S. Commissioner Ed. jury on a date not yet deterward F. Casey in Springfield.

gis, 36, of Fairmont City.

session of unregistered firearms, failure to pay federal taxes on automatic firearms were arrested. and failure to file with the district director of Internal Rev-stricting sale or possession of tention to make firearms.

is based on the allegation that stricted. Lauchli and Sturgis reassembled 100 Thompson submachine pletely prohibit sale or possesbered by the government and provide for their registrasold as scrap iron.

The submachine guns, along them. with mortars, a 75-mm. recoil- Scroggins said that sale or less rifle and assorted other possession of virtually any type arms, were sold by Lauchli weapon is permissible unand Sturgis to agents of the der federal law, provided the Treasury Department's Alcohol applicable registration and taxand Tobacco Tax Unit for $17,- ation requirements are met.

ly believed they were dealing sessed and sold the guns in queswith agents of a foreign power, tion, but because the weapons although one of the federal were not registered with the agents said they represented government and because taxes themselves only "as guys with due on them had not been paid. $17,000 who wanted to buy guns."

arms sellers' belief that they "destroyed" by the government were foreign agents.

$20,000 Bond Set

Stugis was fixed yesterday at acctylene torch. $20,000 each, which they were They were then sold by the junable to post. Lauchli waived government as scrap iron, and preliminary hearing while Stur-were obtained by Lauchli, a gis asked to be allowed to con-gunsmith and machinst who sult an attorney before decid-reassembled them to working ing whether to ask for one.

Lauchli told the commissioner "Mr. Sturgis came along

Scroggins said the case will be mined.

Treasury agents organized They are Richard Lauchli, 37, Treasury agents organized of Collinsville, and Donald Sturthe arms purchase from the two men because the Treasury They are charged with pos-Department is charged with

There is no federal law reenue a statement of their in-tention to make firearms.

ordinary - type firearms, but fully - automatic, military-type Asst. U. S. Attorney Leon weapons of the kind bought by Scroggins said the latter count the Treasury agents are re-

The federal laws do not comguns which had been dismem-sion of such weapons, but do tion and payment of taxes on

Lauchli and Sturgis are thus Lauchl and Sturgis apparent-charged not because they pos-

Chief Dep. Sheriff David Eaton of Dewitt County said the The agents, however, appar-submachine guns sold by ently did nothing to dissuade the Lauchli and Sturgis had been by cutting them in two, across the receiver which houses the Bond for both Lauchli and operating mechanism, with an condition.