UPHOLDS CONVICTION ON WEAPONS CHARGE

By a Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch

CHICAGO, Dec. 6 - A fireerms conviction against Richard Lauchli Jr., Collinsville, Ill., once a leader of the Minutemen in Illinois, was upheld yesterday by the Seventh United States Circuit Court of Appeals

In his appeal, Lauchli contended that Treasury agent Fortino Gutierrez was guilty of entrapment because he posed as an exile Cuban general trying to buy arms. A unanimous opinion written by Judge F. Ryan Duffy discounted the contention of entrapment.

Lauchli was sentenced to two and a half years in prison on a charge of manufacturing firearms without paying a tax on the arms or registering them. In addition, he was given a suspended two-year sentence on a plea of guilty of stealing 23 bazookas from the Jefferson Proving Ground, Madison, Ind.

Evidence was presented in $17,000 worth of machine gu to Gutierrez and Treasu agent Thomas Mosely. T sale took place on a farm ne Wapella, in DeWitt county,
