

Not important, Howard, but perhaps interesting: Today's Post says there was petty graft by Agnew, with Bluefield Caterers, of Baltimore. Owned by Phila.'s ARA Services, a conglomerate with a paperback publishing company. Hoses, maybe? Federal Trade Commission charges against ARA, for "unfair merger and acquisition practises." MM 6/21/73