

... ANDERSON 7/25/73

Headlines and Footnotes: In a memo marked for the "eyes only" of President Nixon, Vice President Agnew urged the dismantling of Lyndon Johnson's Great Society. The memo was solicited by the President after his re-election. Agnew responded with an appeal that their landslide victory was a "mandate" to end Johnson's social programs . . .