WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew said Monday he had been told he was under investigation for possible violation of criminal statutes.

Agnew made the disclosure through his press secretary, Marsh Thomson, and said "I will make no further comment until the investigation has been completed ..."

Agnew's full text follows:

"I have been informed that I am under investigation for possible violations of the criminal statutes. I will make no further comment until the investigation has been completed, other than to say that I am innocent of any wrongdoing, that I have confidence in the criminal justice system of the United States and that I am equally confident my innocence will be affirmed."
