${\it MacGregorIdentifiesFour}$ Who Guided Special Fund

NYTimes

By NICHOLAS GAGEOCT 2 7 1972

Special to The New York Times

the Committee for the Re-Democrats. election of the President, acknowledged today that selected been used for preliminary planmembers of the re-election ef-ning of President Nixon's camfort had control of a special paign and to determine if there

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26-it had not been used to under-Clark MacGregor, chairman of write sabotage against the

He said that the money had cash fund but he insisted that had been any organized efforts to disrupt "the presentation of the President's case" in the New Hampshire primary in March.

> Mr. MacGregor said that the money was under the control of Jeb Stuart Magruder, a deputy director of the re-election committee; Maurice H. Stans, chairman of the Finance Committee to Re-elect the President; G. Gordon Liddy, the finance committee counsel, who has been indicted in the breakin and alleged bugging at the Democratic headquarters here, and Bert Porter, an advance man with the re-election committee.

He said that some of the money had been left over from the 1968 political campaign and the rest had been collected before last April 7, when the new law governing campaign financing went into effect. He did not say how much money was in the special fund.

Continued on Page 25, Column 4

MacGregor Names Four Who Controlled Special Fund

The New York Times has learned that sworn testimony by individuals connected with that a cash fund of $900,000 one was a question of semanwas collected and turned over tics. to key officials in the President's campaign drive.

Sources close to the investithat, contrary to Mr. MacGregor's assertions, some of the cash funds had been used to finance intelligence gathering and disruption of Democratic campaign efforts.

Mr. MacGregor, interviewed by Elizabeth Drew of the National Public Affairs Center for Television, said that he was not fully informed on the cash fund because he became chairman only last July 1, when former Attorney General John W. Mitchell resigned.

Denies Haldeman Role

He asserted categorically, however, that H. R. Haldeman, President Nixon's Chief of Staff, had nothing to do with day,

"At no time has Bob had any

Continued From Page 1, Col. 3 told about events before he beknowledge of what had hap-said.

the re-election effort asserts re-election officials was a secret committee funds and alleging Trust Company, where accounts money have not been disclosed, based on erroneous hearsay. he said, there has been no gation of the case said tonight that, contrary to Mr. MacGregactivities.

mony shows.

the fund. The Washington Post not retained by the Finance complex here. linked him to the fund yester-committee, as was control of other contributions.

In a telephone interview after MacGregor said yesterday that serve as treasurers. his television appearance, Mr. the individuals might have in-MacGregor said that he had cluded others than the four he United States District Court money had been used for es- Chapin, a close aide to the set up to receive $322,500 in the prosecution, said in an inpionage or sabotage against the President, was involved in any contributions from the dairy terview last month that he had Democrats, and they said it had way with alleged sabotage industry.

He charged that articles in On television, he said that The Washington Post linking from C. Jackson Ritchie Jr., whether the fund used by the Mr. Haldeman to the use of vice president of the Union planned and directed disruption opened. While the donors of the efforts against Democrats were

450 Groups Set Up

Post's allegation concerning Mr. would serve as treasurers. The Haldeman was in dispute, testi-bank complied with the rethat testimony said was collected by the group came in other White House aide played On question

As the money arrived, the ident's campaign has been as its chairman F. Howard Hunt channeled to more than 450 sep- Jr, none of the seven men in arate committees, are committeed by the finance committee, are committeed by the finance committee, are committeed by the finance committees. according to the testimony.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept.

On April 7 the log was destroyed and only a summary sheet of the donations was kept. Sometime later, however, that, White House counsel. Mr. Dean of it, he said, was the Committoo, was destroyed so that no is the man who conducted an tee for Greater Community Inrecord now remains, the testi-internal investigation for the volvement. President into the break-in and After the money was collected, control of the cash was headquarters at the Watergate in answer to a motion filed to-up the 450 units using staff ployed by the Committee for Selected individuals in the re-members to serve as chairmen the Re-election of the President, tie whatever to the funds con-election effort assumed respon- and using employes at banks as a co-conspirator in the tributed, at any time," he said sibility for the money. Mr. where checks were deposited to Watergate case. He was not

A deposition filed in the ment. asked all individuals who had named. "But I am not aware of responsibility over the funds, any others," he said.

here yesterday outlined how granted immunity by the Government and is expected to be responsibility over the funds, except Mr. Liddy, whether any He denied that Dwight L. this procedure worked in the ernment and is expected to be establishment of 50 committees one of the main witnesses for

"Dwight Chapin Just simply istration raised the Federal came the committee chairman had no knowledge of and was and that he had no direct not involved in any way," he return for the contributions from the milk industry.

that the President's committee for the 50 committees were

Mr. Ritchie testified that the bank had been sent a list of the committees with the names of the chairmen and had been While the accuracy of The asked to find employes who before last April 7 so that the donors did not have to be reported.

As the money arrived, the donors are group came in other White House aide played on questioning by William a role in the financial oper-A. Dobrovir, attorney for Mr. ations of the re-election effort. Nader, Mr. Ritchie said that The contributions to the Pres-one of the 50 committees had

In another development, the day, named Alfred C. Baldwin The President's committee set 3d, a former security guard emnamed in the original indict-

Mr. Baldwin, who has been monitored the phone taps on not.

He emphasized that he was relying on what he had been friend of Mr. Chapin.

May with alleged sabotage industry.

Efforts against Democrats by The suit, filed by Ralph the national headquarters of Nader, the consumer advocate, the Democratic party at the charges that the Nixon Admin-Watergate.